

It is so nice to enjoy uninterrupted with my family. Before this law was put into place, it was one phone call after another. Now I can read to my kids and they can read to me without having to get up to answer the phone and listen to a sales pitch.